THE SENIOR CLASS
BISHOP McCORT HIGH SCHOOL
JOHNSTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

504 Main St., Johnstown, Pa.
Dial 536-5189

FOREWORD

With the "new look" in society of growing boys and girls, or modern teenagers, a glance back at the man who made Bishop McCort High School a reality has made us stop and re-evaluate our Educational Institution. Our Annual which reviews our intellectual, spiritual, and spirited activities, is a reminder to us of the greatness of the man, Bishop John J. McCort, who made all of this possible. His dreams of youth, who are trained in every aspect of human endeavor, encouraged to develop a sense of values, and lead to an understanding of what faith and morals are to mean to them, can be seen in every page. We want our book to be a reflection of these dreams, a reality. We know that especially after the book is closed on our four years in our Alma Mater we will also dream of what has been, and pray that what was started, the good seed, may grow in our hearts. We remember our Bishop always in prayer.

REVEREND RICHARD HOVANEK, PRINCIPAL

Maturity comes with age and experience. It presupposes a mind trained to look at an institution and its students and to see beneath every external cover, the nature and value of the organization and the type of mind and aspiration of the student. This is not easy and neither are all insights correct. However, understanding allows for error. It is not stopped in its effort to uphold and stabilize the organization, and more important, the individual.

This is a principal's job and Father Hovanec, our principal, is most qualified to fill this role.

"We are grateful to you, Father. We shall always remember you!"

Class of '68

Reverend James F. Bunn, Vice-principal

Arranging schedules, substituting for the faculty, checking the cafeteria, patrolling the halls, helping students, etc., these are some of the many responsibilities of our very capable Vice-principal, Father Bunn.

We appreciate the time and energy Father has spent at the task of maintaining the standards of the school.

"Thank you, Father, and God bless you."

Class of '68

Important people making important announcements.

Rev. James F. Schuster, Superintendent of Schools

Leading and advising, counseling and directing, interviewing and placing in addition to conducting tests, alerting students to scholarship opportunities, etc., these tasks and many others are the concern of our guidance counselor, Sister Hilda Marie.

George Rahnik, A. Page, Vito Birk, Charles Anderson, and Oscar Rose, members of the Athletic Association, get together at the annual banquet.

Mike Vachell puts the Crushers two points. (See February No. 5)

Bill Fenty again always is ready on the boards.

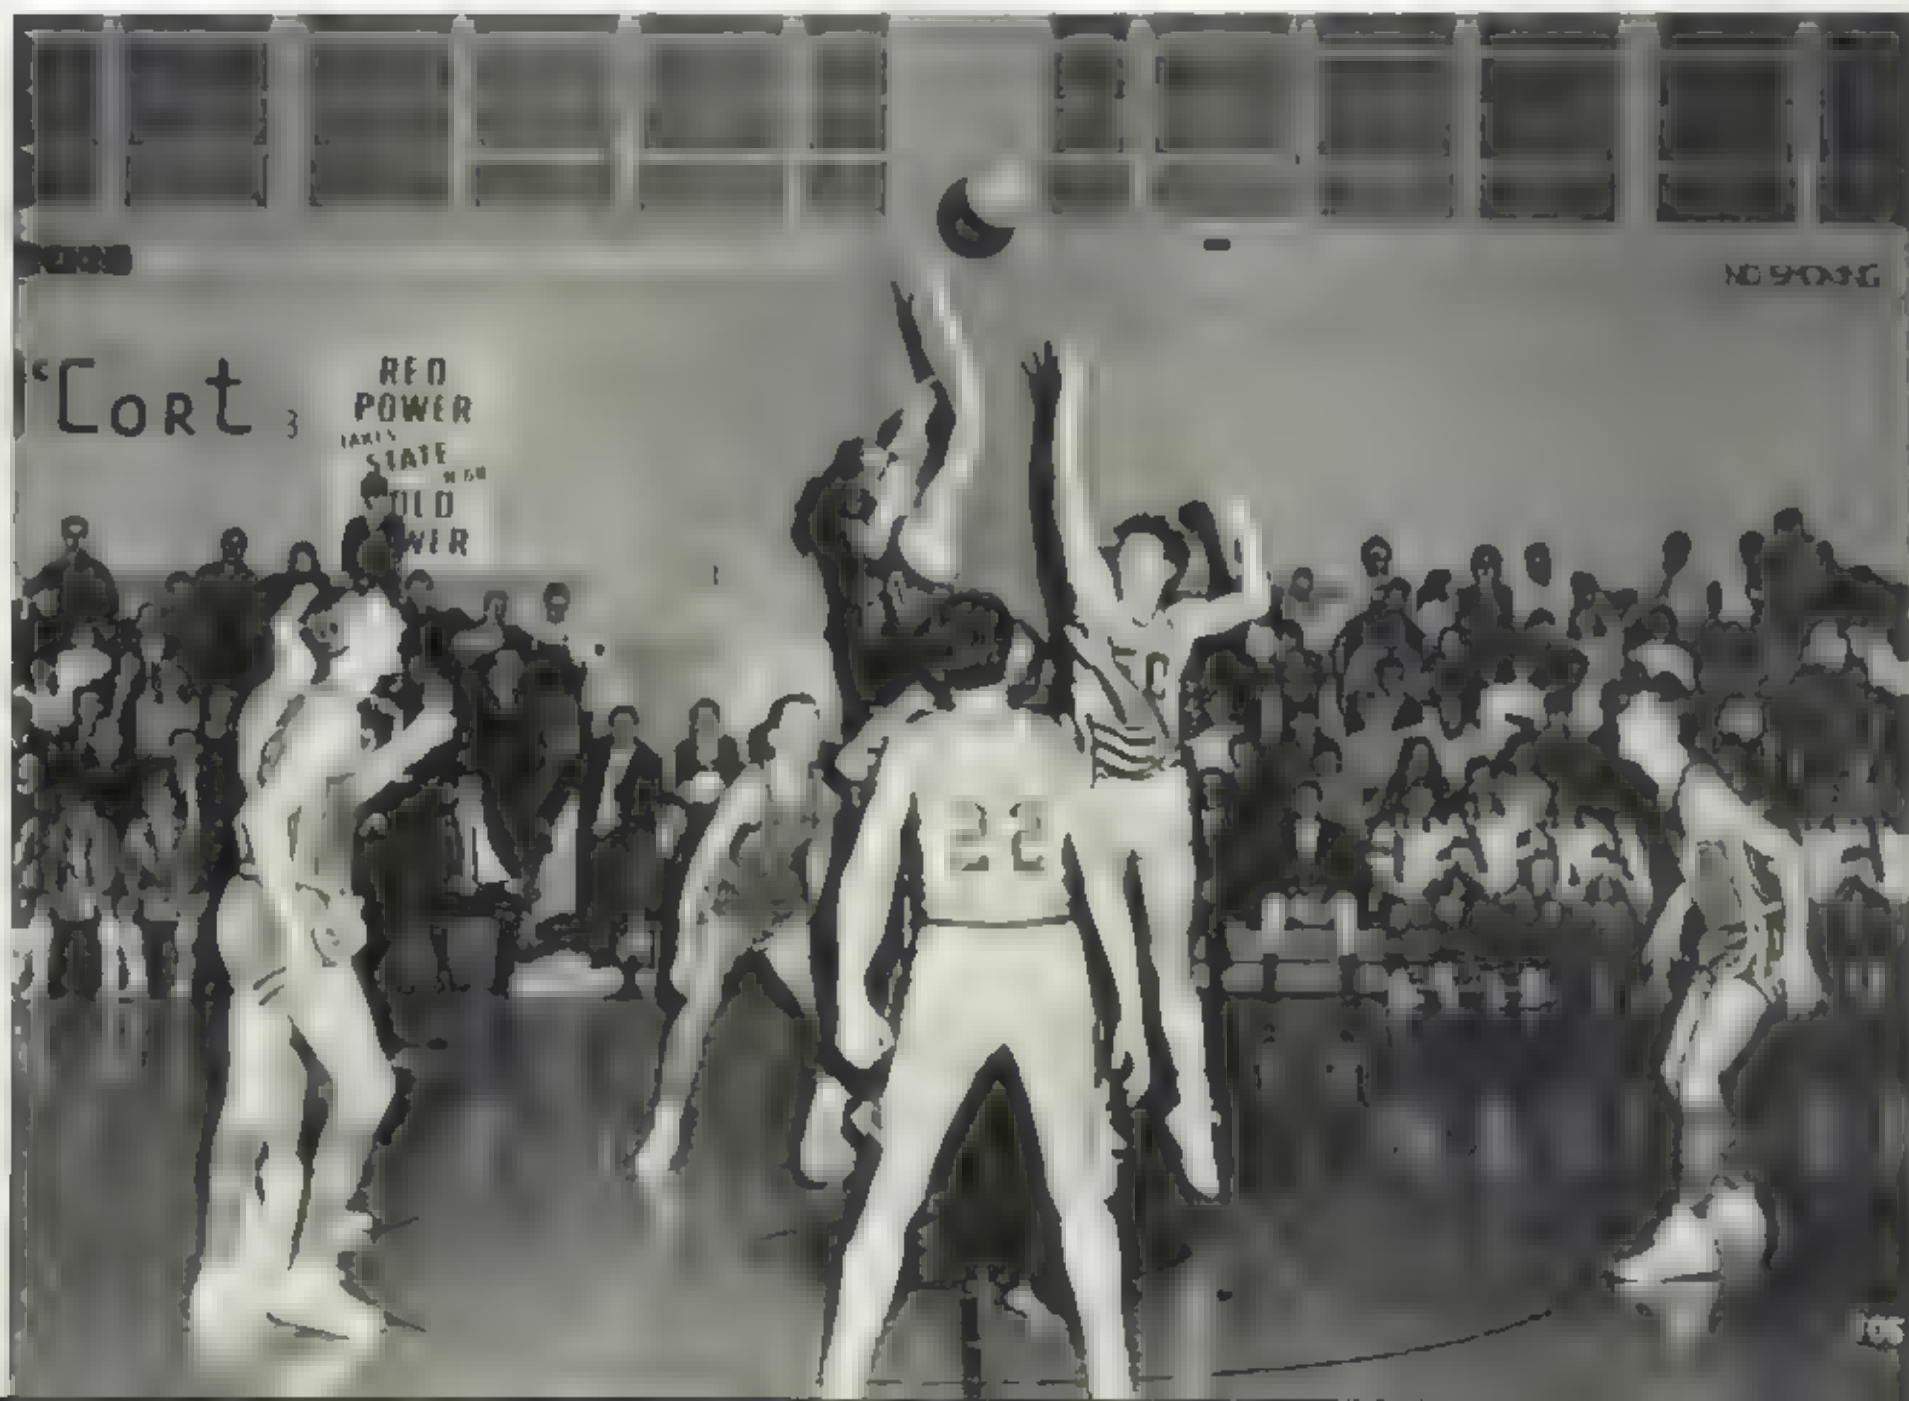

Led by high-scorer Jerry McDevitt and play-maker Jim Stephens the Crusher varsity cagers have again come up with an outstanding team of hustlers. The season started with a victory at Conemaugh, and two of the more notable wins came against Johnstown and Guilfoyle. It has been a fine season, and the '68 McCortmen will go down in the record books as one of the school's greatest teams.

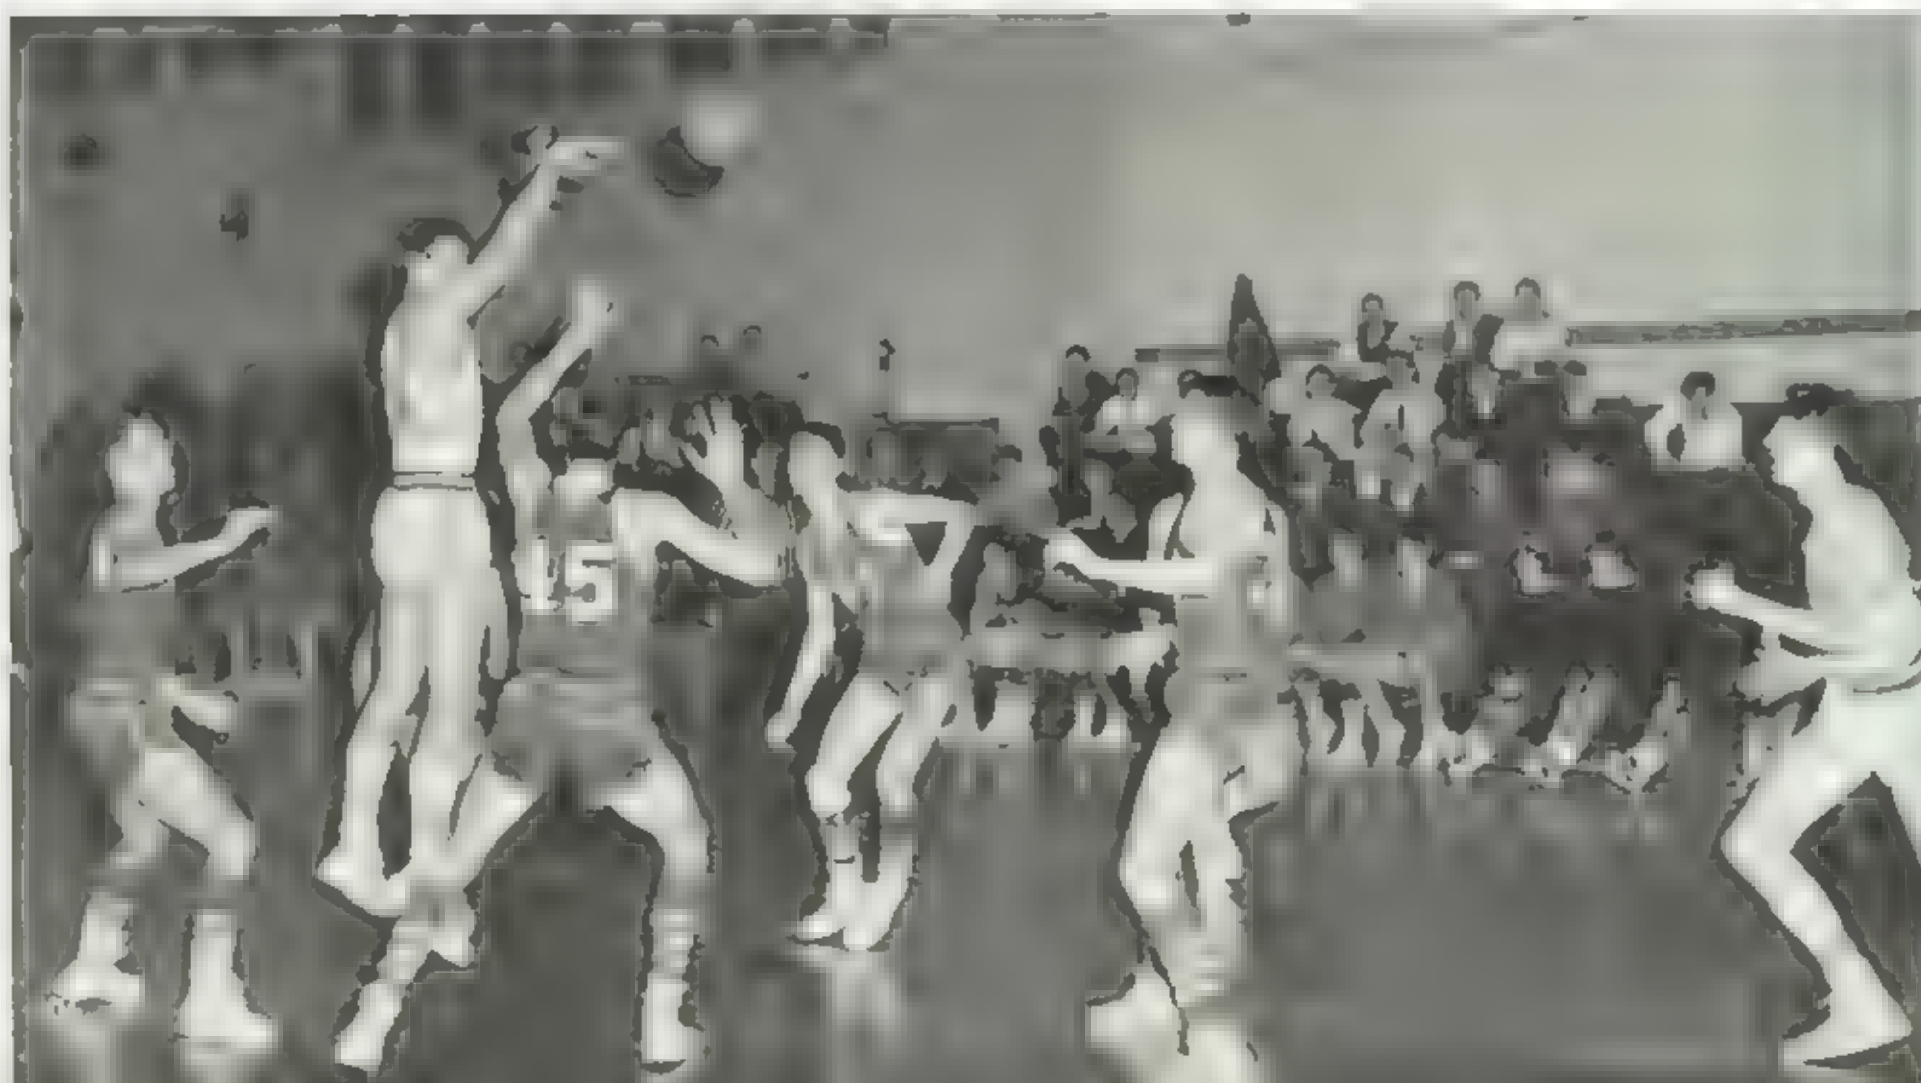

Jim Stephens seems to be considering his next move.

Bill Choby leaps high for the top against Jim Hanak of Richland.

OUR CREW IN ACTION

Members of the Athletic Association with the Mayor and Bishop of the school with the game of basketball

Memories '68, on behalf of the faculty, students, and especially the athletes, would like to thank the Athletic Association for their support. Without this group of men it is doubtful whether Bishop McCort could have a sports program at all. From summer camp in football until the end of baseball, these men constantly give their time for the good of our boys. With such untiring efforts on the part of these men, the Bishop McCort theme in years to come, will continue to be, "We're Number 1."

JUNIOR VARSITY

The '68 edition of Junior Varsity basket ball at McCort appeared as a bright preliminary to each varsity contest. One could always come early and see a thrilling display of basketball. Under the close supervision of Mr. Martynuska, the Junior Crushers have molded a fine team. This team will surely deliver outstanding performers for the varsity.

J.V. Coach, Ray Martynuska, and Freshman Coach, Don Ferrell at the Sports Banquet

With great spirit and a tremendous will to win, the LITTLE CRUSHERS have copped the INTER-COUNTY LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP for the first time in the history of the league. Outstanding teamwork and aggressive play enabled the Frosh to defeat Roosevelt Junior High for the title. Having achieved these goals through the leadership of COACH FERRELL, these boys will make the varsity basketball picture at McCort a bright one in the years to come

GOLF

The 1967 golf season at BMHS ended on a winning note as the school golfers won the Wheeling Tournament at Sunnehanna Country Club. Len Lubinsky '67 was the medalist in the tournament with a score of 148 over 36 holes. The day ended with a fine banquet in the club dining room. Pictures of the Crushers were taken for TV and newspaper and Dr. Wheeling, chairman, gave his comments. In all it was a fine day.
